THE WORLD WATCH LIST BACKGROUND & TRENDS

EACH YEAR, THE WORLD WATCH LIST RANKS THE TOP 50 COUNTRIES WHERE CHRISTIANS FACE THE MOST PERSECUTION. TYPES OF PERSECUTION, SEVERITY AND OTHER ELEMENTS ARE ALL MONITORED IN THE REPORTING PERIOD. THE WORLD WATCH LIST IS AUDITED BY AN OUTSIDE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION TO ENSURE CREDIBILITY AND AUTHENTICITY.

Last year, it was noted that 2014 had been an unprecedented year in Christian persecution, and Open Doors predicted that it would only get worse. In 2015, Christian persecution not only increased, but expanded into areas where there was not the same level of persecution in the previous year.

Here are some significant trends to note while reading the 2016 World Watch List and this report:

- + The most rapidly growing area of persecution in the WWL is in the Middle East, Africa and Central Asia.
- + Islamic extremist self-styled caliphates have expanded their spheres of operation across international borders.
- + Governments became more fearful of Islamic extremism and responded by either (a) boosting nationalism as a counter-force or (b) tightening regulations and increasing surveillance over all religious expression.
- + Muslims throughout the world are becoming more Islamic out of fear that extremists may take over their areas and that IS sleeper cells may wake.
- + More states are lawless, with minorities suffering at the hands of violent groups.

A DEEPER LOOK INTO THE TOP 3 COUNTRIES ON THE WorldWatchList OpenDoors

1 NORTH KOREA

92/100 EXTREME PERSECUTION

Leader: Kim Jong-Un

Population: 24.5 million (300,000 Christians)

Main Religion: Atheism/traditional beliefs

Government: Communist dictatorship

Source of Persecution: Communist oppression/ Dictatorial paranoia

North Korea heads the World Watch List for the 14th consecutive year now. Kim Jong Un has continued to consolidate his power, and no changes or even improvements have been seen in the reporting period. On the contrary: ideology again trumped everything as could be seen in the celebration of the ruling Korean Workers Party's 70th anniversary in October 2015. It remains difficult to make sense of most of the news pouring out of the country. This is even truer when it comes to topics like human rights or the situation of the Christian minority specifically. Christianity is not only seen as "opium for the people" as is normal for all communist states; it is also seen as deeply Western and despicable. Christians try to hide their faith as far as possible to avoid arrest and being sent to a labor camp. Thus, being Christian has to be a well-protected secret, even within families, and most parents refrain from introducing their children to the Christian faith in order to make sure that nothing slips their tongue when they are asked.

PRAY

- + For the 50,000-70,000 Christians imprisoned in labor camps. Ask God to sustain them.
- + That God would change the heart of Kim Jong-Un, and use him to reform the country.
- + For protection for ministry partners who are bringing practical and spiritual support to believers.

Around 24% of North Koreans have watched television programs from China and South Korea, which is strictly prohibited by the regime.

2 IRAQ

90/100 EXTREME PERSECUTION

Leader: Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki
Population: 35.9 million (a few thousand Christians)
Main Religion: Islam
Government: Parliamentary democracy
Source of Persecution: Islamic extremism

There has been a long tradition of Christians living in Iraqi cities like Baghdad and Mosul. Christians have lived in Iraq for two millennia but are currently on the verge of extinction. Iraq has suffered from years of structural uncertainty, conflict and instability under a government incapable of enforcing the rule of law and providing a minimum of security. Iraq is divided in two parts, the semi-autonomous Kurdish region in the north and the large remaining Arab part. Kurds and Arabs have their own languages and culture. Most of Iraq's oil resources are found near Kirkuk and Mosul, the border areas between the Kurdish region and Arab Iraq, and these are amongst the most violent places of Iraq. Christians are caught here in the crossfire of two different battles: one for a Kurdish autonomous country and one for a religious cleansing of Iraq by Islamic terrorist groups who wish to make the country purely Islamic. On the other hand, amidst the current crisis, there are also sparks of hope as opportunities arise for churches to reach out to refugees.

PRAY

- + For Muslim Background Believers who often face opposition from their family and community.
- + For the protection of Christians fleeing from ISIS.
- + For Open Doors workers supporting displaced Christians with trauma counseling, training and income generating projects.

According to tradition, the gospel was brought to Iraq by the apostle Thomas. Christians have been living in the area for almost 2,000 years.

3

ERITREA

89/100

EXTREME PERSECUTION

Leader: President Isaias Afewerki

Population: 6.7 million (2.5 million Christians)

Main Religion: Islam/Christianity

Government: One-party state

Source of Persecution: Dictatorial paranoia/Islamic extremism/Ecclesiastical arrogance

Eritrea entered the World Watch List in 2002, and in 2004, the country jumped into the top 20. The Eritrean regime is absolutely authoritarian and intolerant towards any form of association, dissent and free expression. The government's attempt to control all religious institutions culminated in the deposing of the Eritrean Orthodox Church Patriarch who has been under house arrest since 2007. Eritrea has also consistently supported the rise and spread of radical Islam in the Horn of Africa. In the international context, it is also important to take note of the fact that Eritrea is one of the two African countries designated as a "Country of Particular Concern" (CPC) by the US State Department because of severe violations of freedom of religion. The situation in Eritrea is also contributing to the global refugee crisis. One refugee stated that, "the country is almost without its youth - some of them are in the SAWA Defense Training Center and others are escaping the regime through every possible outlet. And the country has become uninhabitable." That is why Robert P. George and Thomas J. Reese from USCIRF ask: "Should Eritrea's track record on human rights crimes and religious freedom warrant a referral to the International Criminal Court at The Hague?"

PRAY

- + For the hundreds of Eritrean Christians who have been imprisoned for their faith.
- + That the government would soften its stance on evangelical Christians and give them the freedom to worship Jesus without restrictions.
- + That the rise of Islamic extremism will be stifled.

Eritrea has supplied weapons and ammunition to Al-Shabaab, an Islamic extremist group.
